Dom Trenta (Trenta Lodge) provides visitors with information about the park and its surrounding areas, accommodation, and qualified guides for mountain tours of all levels of difficulty. The exhibitions and animated presentations highlight the beauty of Slovenia’s only national park, as well as the cultural and ethnological heritage of the strong and independent Alpine man – an iron worker, an alpine dairy farmer, a lumberjack, a daring climber and a mountain guide.

Exhibitions:
- Biodiversity of Triglav National Park – NEW!
- Inanimate nature (fossils, waters, and high-altitude karst)
- Life in the Trenta Valley in the past
- Ethnological collection – the Trenta Museum
- Life in the Julian Alps and nature protection

Interactive presentations:
- Multi-vision presentation of the Triglav National Park
- Animated relief map of the Julian Alps
- Wildlife presentation through images and sound on touch-screen displays
- Video installations ‘Secrets of Soča’, and ‘The Forest – Time Triptych’
